Friends of the Library

Support the library by becoming a Friend. The Friends of the Library sponsor programs and activities.

Friends like you are important

Through membership dues and funds raised at our used books sales, the Friends of the Library assist in important library programs that are not supported by taxes. Just a few of these include:

- 1,000 Books Before Kindergarten
- Summer and Winter Reading Programs
- Books for Babies
- Book baskets for community waiting rooms
- Book Pages monthly literary news
- Boo in Bluffton, Halloween treats for children
- Teen Trivia
- Library programs including speakers, classes, workshops, etc.
- Author visits
- Library giveaways for National Library Week, Random Acts of Kindness, Children's Book Week, etc.
- Library Street Fair parade entry (Clifford & friends)
- Continuing Education
- Seasonal decorations
