One Book One County

One Book One County is a community read program for Wells County held in September and October every year. The program is designed to create a countywide discussion by encouraging all residents to read the same book. There are also a number of special events at the library related to themes found in the featured book. This year the library has chosen two titles to appeal to different age groups: “A Walk in the Woods: Rediscovering America on the Appalachian Trail” by Bill Bryson and “Navigating Early” by Clare Vanderpool.

Get the Books

It’s very easy to participate in One Book One County! Just stop by the Main Library, Ossian Branch, or the Northeast Indiana Digital Library (online at: nidl.lib.overdrive.com or via the OverDrive app) to check-out a copy of either book today.

About the Books

A Walk in the Woods
by Bill Bryson

Adults. “Returning to the U.S. after 20 years in England, Iowa native Bryson decided to reconnect with his mother country by hiking the length of the 2100-mile Appalachian Trail. Awed by the beauty of the local sights, he nevertheless plunges into the wilderness and emerges with a consistently comical account of a neophyte woodsman learning hard lessons about self-reliance.” - Publishers Weekly

Navigating Early
by Clare Vanderpool

Ages 10+. “When Jack Baker’s father sends him from his home in Kansas to attend a boys’ boarding school in Maine, Jack doesn’t know what to expect. Certainly not Early Auden, the strangest of boys…During a break from school, the boys set out for the Appalachian Trail on a quest for a great black bear. As Jack and Early travel deeper into the mountains, they meet peculiar and dangerous characters and make some shocking discoveries. But their adventure is only just the beginning. Will Jack and Early’s friendship last the journey? Can the boys make it home alive?” - book jacket

International Games Week

After-Hours Party
Bluffton: Friday, November 3: 5:30-7:30 pm
Grades 4-8. Join us as we celebrate International Games Week at the library by playing all kinds of games including Wii, board games, and hide-and-seek in the library after the library closes. We will also have pizza and snacks for you to enjoy! You must have a permission slip signed by a parent or guardian to attend. Permission slips are available at the Teen Zone desk or at the door the evening of the party. Register by November 2 for a guaranteed spot.

Make Your Own Crystal Radio
Bluffton: Thursday, November 9: 6:00-8:00 pm
3rd grade - Adult. The Wells County Amateur Radio Club, Upper Wabash Conservation & Science Center, and Wells County Public Library are collaborating to bring people of all ages together to learn how to build your very own working crystal radio. Participants in this STEM program will learn about some of the science behind how radios work and will build their very own crystal radio. Registrations will be taken at the Reference Desk at the Main Library. The cost for each radio kit is $20 and must be paid upon registration. We are encouraging families to work together on the same kit to make this a multi-generational learning experience. Space is limited so sign up today!

Escape Room
Bluffton: Thursday, November 16: 6:00-7:30 pm
Grades 6-12. In teams of 4-6 people, you will be “locked” in the meeting room. Together you need to find hidden clues, solve puzzles, and use your logic and observation skills to find codes to unlock the box that holds the final key to get out of the room. It’s possible – but it won’t be easy. Are you up to the challenge? If so register by November 15 for a guaranteed spot in this program. Space is limited! This is a different escape room from the previous two that we have run at the library for teens.

Crazy Christmas Culinary Challenge
Bluffton: Thursday, December 14: 6:00-7:30 pm
Grades 6-12. If you like to cook and enjoy the show Chopped™ then this program is for you! In teams of 4-5 people, you will be given a basket full of Christmas themed ingredients and you will have 1 hour to prepare your dishes using all of the ingredients from the basket. The winning team will receive a small prize and the title of “Crazy Christmas Culinary Challenge Champions of 2017”. (Try to say that 5 times fast.) Space is limited. Register by December 13 for a guaranteed spot.

Swim Party @ the “Y”
Thursday, December 28: 6:00-8:00 pm
Grades 6-12. This free program will take place at the Cayfor-Nickel Foundation Family YMCA in Bluffton. Join us for an evening of fun as we start off swimming, then enjoy a snack, and finish up with a fun activity in the gym. We will meet at the “Y” starting at 5:45 pm and you will need to be picked up no later than 8:15 pm. This will be a very active program so come dressed appropriately. Don’t forget your swimsuit and towel (no bikinis please). You do not need to be a member of the “Y” to attend. Registration is REQUIRED by December 27.

Meets the last Wednesday of the month from 6:00-7:00 pm
Grades 6-12. Do you need volunteer credit or wish you had a say in teen programming at the library? Join the Teen Advisory Board. You don’t need to sign up, just show up for the TAB meetings. Snacks are always provided! October’s meeting will be held earlier because of Fall Break.

Special Events

Minecraft Mania
Bluffton: Thursday, September 28: 5:30-7:30 pm
Grades 6-12. Players will be given a Minecraft building challenge and 75 minutes to come up with a creative solution. We will then showcase the creations on our big screen. If you have your own device and Minecraft account please bring it! We will only have a few iPads with guest accounts for those who do not have a device or account. We will also have a few laptops with Minecraft installed on them for those who have a PC Minecraft account but don’t want to bring their laptops/computers. Snacks will be served. Register by September 27 for a guaranteed spot.

Book Washing
Bluffton: Monday, October 9: 5:00-8:00 pm
Grades 6-12. Volunteer to wash books at the library and get fines removed from your card! For every hour that you wash books you can take $12.00 off your fine! Don’t have any fines? Great! You can still wash books and receive a free book of your choice valued at $12.00 or less for every hour and half that you volunteer on the 9th! That’s up to $36.00 off your fine or two free books and you’ll even get to enjoy a tasty treat while you volunteer. Pre-registration is required so that we can have enough snacks available.

Melted Crayon Art
Bluffton: Thursday, October 12: 6:00-7:30 pm
Grades 6-12. Create a work of art with crayons in a whole new way. We’ll be using several techniques to melt the crayons onto your canvas resulting in a unique piece of melted wax art. We want to make sure that we will have enough supplies so register by October 11 for a guaranteed spot in this program!

Guided Hikes
@ Ouabache State Park: Saturday, Oct. 7: 2-3 pm
All ages. Guided nature hike through the park with Indiana Naturalist Dr. Jordan Marshall. Attendees will get free entrance into the park. Must be registered with the library to attend.

Local Author Night
Bluffton: Tuesday, October 17: 6-8 pm
Kay Reusser talk: 7-8 pm
Adults/Teens/Kids. Join us for this fun, family-friendly event. Attendees will get to wander through booths set up throughout the Main Library to chat with authors and participate in book-related activities for all ages (including children’s games, book-themed crafts, and more). You can purchase books from the authors if you like or just enjoy the fun. Kay Reusser will be giving a keynote talk from 7-8 pm about her travels to World War II sites throughout Belgium, Luxembourg, France, and Germany that will be featured in her latest book and her writing process.

No registration needed (just drop in during the event). All activities will be free and there will be chances to win books. There is still space for authors to register for a booth. If interested, contact Emily Marshall at emarshall@wellscolibrary.org or call 260-824-1612.

Outdoor Pursuits

Summer Reading Recap
Thank you to everyone that participated in our 2017 Summer Reading Program and a special congratulations to the more than 1,300 children, teens, and adults that completed the program. We had a great year this year and had more finishers in almost all age groups.
- Infants: about 68 of our youngest library patrons completed a total of 1,440 activities.
- Kids: with 1,404 children ages 2-grade 6 participating, the group read for 8,304 hours (up more than 600 hours from last year).
- Teens: approximately 211 teens participated from grades 6-12 and read 553,416 pages (up over 154,000 pages from last year).
- Adults: between the 383 adults participating, there were 621,575 pages read (up over 55,000 pages from last year).

Great job everyone and thank you for making the program a success. Below is a photo from our kick off event.
Make sure to check out all the Summer Reading Program sponsors and finishers in the newsletter insert.

A Fond Farewell
Time marches on. Actually, at times it seems to sprint! Retirement, a coveted milestone for many Americans, has come knocking at my door. Deciding when the right time to open the door and walk on through has been a bit of a process. It seemed that the conclusion of another successful Summer Reading Program—the busiest time of the year in the Children’s Room—would be a fitting time to bid my thirty-four years at the Wells County Public Library a fond farewell. And so August 31st will be “turn-in-my-keys-and-nametag” day.

I want to thank our wonderful patrons and my amazing colleagues for a career that has been challenging, fulfilling, and rewarding. It has been a joy to spend my days promoting and providing literacy in its many forms. It has been a bonus to share these passions with library advocates who have become some of my closest friends.

There have been plenty of golden moments over the decades to keep me happily reminiscing long into my retirement: three major building projects, cutting edge technology, and myriad interactions with our customers. I have loved selecting materials for you to enjoy and planning programs to encourage the love of reading and learning. I have been inspired by world class speakers at conferences as well as by the innocent remarks of small children discovering the delights of a library. I treasure the conversations I have had over the years with grandparents, parents, and children, teachers and students, and library colleagues throughout the state. Quite simply, I could not have asked for a career that suited me more perfectly or provided me any greater satisfaction. For any role, large or small, that you have played in making my library memories so golden, I am profoundly grateful.

Finally, I have kept a quote taped in my desk calendar for at least ten years now, repositioning it annually in the back of the current year’s calendar. It states, “Those of us who are able to pick our own successors to carry on endeavors that we care about with passion and enthusiasm are the lucky ones. It means that we have happy expectations that the ventures we leave have a life of their own and will flourish in the best hands.” I have personally interviewed and chosen many outstanding candidates to carry on the work of Children’s Services. The staff we currently have in place are exceptional in so many ways. Cindy Burchell, with whom I have worked for twenty wonderful years, will be the new Department Head of Children’s Services. Truly, I could not be leaving our corner of the library in better hands. “Happy expectations” indeed!
A benefit of having worked in a public place is that I can always return after retirement to check in with friends and to see what’s new. As a lifetime lover of libraries, I fully expect to continue my relationship with my beloved WCPL. However, from now on I will be entering through the front doors which should give me a slightly different perspective on this esteemed institution. Till then…

…and one last time…Amy Greiner, Head of Children’s Services

Parlor City Christmas
Bluffton: Saturday, December 9
All ages. The library is once again working with the Chamber of Commerce, Historical Society, and area businesses to bring you a winter festival for the whole family. Enjoy carriage rides, musical performances in the library, an arts & crafts fair, gooide walk featuring an entire meal’s worth of food, and much more. Market Street will be shut down on the 100th block in front of the Courthouse, but activities will be happening throughout Wells County. Get a schedule at the library closer to the event.

Let the Games Begin @ Ossian
Ossian: Sep. 28, Oct. 26, Nov. 30, and Dec. 28

One Book One County
Stop by the library anytime in September and October to check out “A Walk in the Woods” by Bill Bryson and “Navigating Early” by Clare Vanderpool. Then discuss the 2017 One Book One County titles on our website or at the library. See a listing of One Book One County events on Pages 2-3.

Local Author Night
Bluffton: Tuesday, October 17: 6-8 pm
Kay Reusser talk. 7-8 pm
All ages. More than 20 authors that write for all ages will be gathered in one location. Purchase books or just stop by for lots of book-related activities and a key-note talk from Kay Reusser about her travels to World War II sites throughout Belgium, Luxembourg, France, & Germany.

Escape Room
Bluffton: Friday, November 17: 5:00-7:00 pm
Adults. In teams of 4-6 people, you will be “locked” in the meeting room. Together you need to find hidden clues, solve puzzles, and use your logic and observation skills to find codes to unlock the box that holds the final key to get out of the room. It’s possible – but it won’t be easy. Registration required.
