Ossian Branch Open House

Sunday, May 19: 2-4 pm

The Ossian Branch Library has been under construction since September of last year. An additional 1,800 square feet has been added to the space, as well as, a renovated interior and new parking lot.

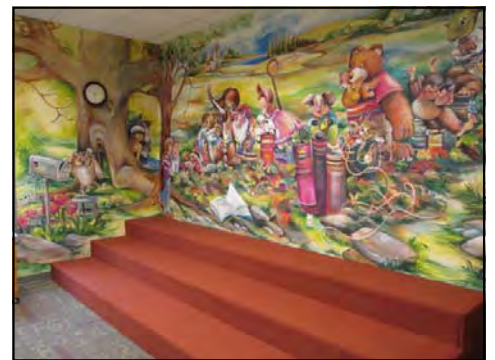

The branch remained open for most of the renovation, but the library will be hosting an Open House on Sunday, May 19 from 2-4 pm to officially reopen the new space. Library staff will give a few remarks at 2 pm, and then attendees can get a “behind the scenes” tour of the new building and enjoy refreshments. Feel free to drop in at any time during the event. The Open House is free and anyone in the community can attend this special event.

Some of the improvements to the library include a new programming room in the Children’s Room, additional seating and gathering space, an attached kitchenette in the meeting room, an improved floor plan, an expanded parking lot, new carpeting, new furnishings, and much more.

For more information about the Ossian Branch Open House, please contact the Ossian Branch Library at 260-622-4691 or visit www.wellscolibrary.org.

Cameron Reed returns books to the newly renovated Ossian Branch Library. Stop by the Open House on Sunday, May 19 from 2-4 pm to see the space for yourself.

Summer Book Sale:

Used books, movies, audio books, DVDs, and more.

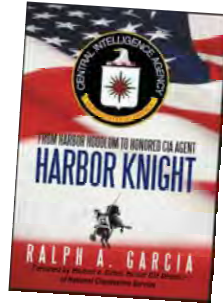

Hours: July 16: 5-8 pm (Friends only preview). Memberships are available at the door.

July 17-20: open during library hours — Sponsored by The Friends of the Library.

Author Visit – Ralph Garcia

Thursday, May 23: 6:30-7:30 pm

Local author Ralph Garcia will give a presentation on his memoir "Harbor Knight: From Harbor Hoodlum to Honored CIA Agent." After the presentation will be a question and answer session and then a book signing. Books will be available for purchase that evening. Refreshments provided. Registration is appreciated, but not required.

Our New Website

www.wellscolibrary.org

Our website has recently been redesigned. Not only did we change the look, but we reorganized information to hopefully make it easier to find. We also added several new features, including a blog to keep you informed on library news, events, and resources. Be sure to visit the site often to get the most up-to-date information or subscribe to our news feed using your RSS reader.

We hope you will find the new site to be just another reason you love the Wells County Public Library.

eNewsletter:

The Wells County Public Library's electronic Newsletter is published every month now. It contains the latest information on upcoming events and activities at the library. Make sure to sign up at www.wellscolibrary.org to get a copy emailed to you.

Bookmark Design Contest

During the month of April, we held a Bookmark Design Contest and wanted you to tell us a story in pictures of why the library is "Your Go-To Spot." A committee looked over all the wonderful entries and picked a winner in each of the four age categories. The winning designs and designers are listed on the right. Anyone interested will be able to pick up a copy of all the bookmark designs at the library.

Sarah Yergler's

Go-To for Inspirational Fiction

Sarah lives in Bluffton with her husband and two children. As a preschool teacher for the Bluffton-Harrison schools, she often visits the library to get books and other materials to use in her classes. When she's looking for herself she tends to gravitate towards inspirational and general fiction. Here are some of Sarah's favorites:

Authors: Ted Dekker, Francine Rivers, C.S. Lewis, and Karen Kingsbury.

Books: the Circle Series books by Ted Dekker, "Voice in the Wind" by Francine Rivers, "Out of the Silent Planet" by C.S. Lewis, "Safely Home" by Randy Alcorn, "The Help" by Katherine Stockett, "The Hobbit" by J.R.R. Tolkien, and "To Kill a Mockingbird" by Harper Lee.

Why she enjoys Inspirational Fiction: the books "tend to have more depth and you can relate to it. It speaks to your own life."

TV Show: Chopped. She enjoys cooking (and eating)!

Movie: Right now it's Les Misérables. Tomorrow it might be something different.

If you'd be willing to be featured "In the Spotlight," contact Emily Marshall at emarshall@wellscolibrary.org

Research & Book Clubs

Got a Small Engine to Repair?

WCPL can help you tune-up for spring by accessing the Small Engine Repair Reference Center database through our website. Although the database has several sections on a variety of small engines, such as lawn mowers, motorcycles, and generators, it also has a section on tractors.

The Tractors section has repair information for Allis-Chalmers, Ford, John Deere, Kubota, and many more. Under each brand name is a list of models and under each model name lists various categories, such as: brakes, cooling systems, electrical systems, and transmissions. The Hydraulics Information section has articles in three categories: Farm Equipment Electrical Systems, Hydraulic Systems Diagnosis, and Let's Get into Hydraulics. The Farm Equipment Electrical Systems section, contains helpful articles on various circuits, diagnosing issues, and testing. The Let's Get into Hydraulics section covers the different parts, such as: pumps, cylinders, valves, lines, etc.

To access this helpful database, go to the Wells County Public Library home page at www.wellscolibrary.org, click on "Research" and then select the "Small Engine Repair Reference Center." The variety and amount of information is amazing that is available free to our patrons.

BIOGRAPHY FOR BEGINNERS

We have a new research tool for anyone seeking information or a biography on a famous person or world leader, either for a school project or just personal knowledge. You can use the database in the library or from home with your library card. Just go to www.wellscolibrary.org, click on "Research," and then "Biography for Beginners." Browse by subjects or search for the person's name.

Attention Tutors

The library would like to have a list of tutors available to our patrons who are seeking help with their academic studies. If you tutor and would like to have your name added to this list, please email the library at youngadult@wellscolibrary.org with the following info: your name, contact information, subject areas you specialize in, and the age range of students you are willing to tutor. Inclusion on the list will not imply any sort of endorsement by the library, but merely serve as a starting point for those seeking a tutoring service. Thank you.
