Wells County Snap Shots Photo Contest

To help celebrate Indiana's Bicentennial, the library is working together with several area organizations to host a Photo Contest. The goal of the contest is to preserve a small piece of history for the future. The Photo Contest Committee is seeking modern photos taken of people or places in Wells County during 2016, so don't forget your camera when you are out-and-about at events and places in Wells County this summer. We really want a "snap shot" of life in 2016.

Digital photos can be submitted to Emily Marshall at emarshall@wellscolibrary.org or at the Main Library in Bluffton between September 1-30 (please put "Wells County Snap Shots" in the subject of the email). Photos will be printed on 8x10 paper and need a higher resolution, if possible. The photos will be judged by area experts and a select number will be printed and put on display at the Art's, Commerce & Visitors Centre at the end of the contest and then at the Main Library.

Winners will receive a small prize. All photos become the rights of the committee, will be shared via social media, and bound together in a "book" at the library.

Walking Tours

The Wells County Public Library and the Wells County Historical Society are teaming up to provide a self-guided walking tour brochure of downtown Bluffton to help celebrate Indiana's Bicentennial. Brochures should be available at both locations in late May and will include plenty of historical information about the buildings on the "tour." There will also be a guided tour later in the year (possibly August) that will include several "behind-the-scenes" locations that might not always be open to the public.

 Save the Date ***

Children's Book Festival

Bluffton: Saturday, October 8: 10 am - 3 pm

You do not want to miss this event! Award-winning musician and author Jim Gill will perform many of his signature songs for our young attendees. Then Indiana-based author and illustrator David Slonim will speak about his books and creative process. The performances and presentations will be specifically designed for kids, but everyone in the family is invited to attend. Jim and David will both be selling and signing books and CDs during the day and there will be a chance to win some free books. We will also have food trucks down Washington Street, carnival games featuring book themes, special times to meet children's costumed book characters, balloon animals, professional face painting, and much more!

Sponsored by the Virginia Gene Neuenschwander Youth Fund from the Wells County Foundation, the Friends of the Library (on behalf of Barb Barbieri), Wabash Endowment, Gale Saunders, and local school PTOs.

StoryWalk®

Read a story together, while outside in nature

StoryWalk® is an innovative and delightful way for children and adults to enjoy reading and the outdoors at the same time. The StoryWalk® Project was created by Anne Ferguson of Montpelier, VT and developed in collaboration with Vermont Bicycle & Pedestrian Coalition and the Kellogg-Hubard Library.

The Wells County Public Library children's staff heard about this idea at a professional conference in late summer of 2015. Soon after, they obtained money from the Virginia Gene Neuenschwander Youth Fund through the Wells County Foundation to complete this project. They then contacted Steve Higgins at the Anthony Wayne Area Council, Boy Scouts of America, to ask if there were any boys interested in designing, building, and installing a StoryWalk® for an Eagle Scout project. They were thrilled to discover that there were two boys, Bailey Ulfing and Connor Gilliom, interested in this project.

Wells County now has two StoryWalk® projects installed because of the partnership between the library, Bailey and Connor, the Virginia Gene Neuenschwander Youth Fund, the town of Ossian and Bluffton Parks Department.

Bailey Ulfing spent many hours researching, designing, building, and installing the StoryWalk® at the Archbold Wilson Park. This StoryWalk® is approximately 1/4 of a mile long and is located behind the Ossian Elementary School. The Grand Opening Ceremony will be on Saturday, May 7 at 9:30 am.

Connor Gilliom worked on the StoryWalk® at Pickett's Run in Bluffton, which is a loop of approximately 1/5 of a mile long. Connor spent just as many hours researching, designing, building, and installing this StoryWalk®. The Grand Opening should happen in middle to late May.

The Wells County Public Library will be placing a new picture book in the StoryWalk® each season for families to enjoy throughout the year.

The first book that is being featured is "From Head To Toe" by Eric Carle.

Saturday @ the Movies

Bring pillows and snacks to watch movies on the big screen. Children 6 and under must be accompanied by an adult. Popcorn served at the movies in the Main Library.

Because of unforeseen release date changes, we are sadly unable to show Kung Fu Panda 3 on Saturday May 14th, so we are having a "Movie Election Saturday." The movie will be voted on at that day and the ballot will include:

- Hotel Transylvania 2
- Up
- Shrek
- The Jungle Book (1967)
- Robin Hood (1973)

People's Choice movie
Bluffton: May 14 at 2 pm

Launchpads

Launchpads are here! What's a Launchpad you ask? It's a preloaded tablet just for kids with 8-12 fun apps pre-installed. Each Launchpad has a theme with apps that coordinate with that theme (ABCs, Colors, Transportation, Fantasy, Math, Space, etc.). They are geared toward ages 3-5 (pre-K – K) and ages 5-7 (K-2). They cannot connect to the internet, there is no camera and no access to an app store so parents don't have to worry about their kids accessing sites that aren't appropriate. As kids play the games, they earn points that can be spent on items to customize their avatar. Once the Launchpad is returned, it will be wiped clean so it's ready for the next kid. Launchpads are loaned with these policies: 1 week loan, 1 renewal, Limit 2, ADULT card only (not teacher cards), and $1.00 per day late fee.

Events for Teens

All events are free and open to any young adult that has completed grades 6-12 (unless otherwise noted in the event listing) and held at the Main Library in Bluffton.

Register for events at the library, online at www.wellscolibrary.org, or call 260-824-1612.
