Your Go-To for the...
2015 One Book
One County title

"The Adventures of Tom Sawyer"
by Mark Twain

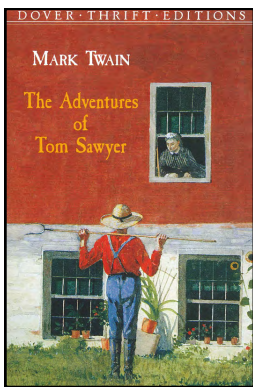

One Book One County

One Book One County

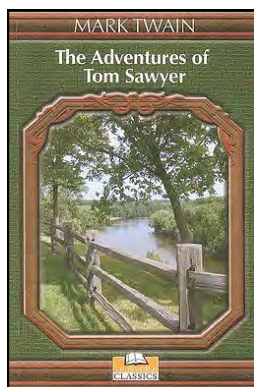

One Book One County is a community read program for Wells County held in September and October every year. The program is designed to create a countywide discussion by encouraging all residents to read the same book. There are also a number of special events at the library related to themes found in the featured book. This year's title is "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer" by Mark Twain. We have so many different versions of the book that you can check out, it'll be hard not to find one to enjoy! Or try a few different ones to see which version is your favorite.

About the Book

"Whether forming a pirate gang to search for buried treasure or spending a quiet time at home, sharing his medicine with Aunt Polly's cat, the irrepressible Tom Sawyer evokes the world of boyhood in nineteenth-century rural America. In this classic story Mark Twain recreated a long-ago world of freshly whitewashed fences and Sunday school picnics into which sordid characters and violent incidents sometimes intruded."

Wabash River Program

Bluffton: Thursday, September 17: 6:30-8:00 pm

Adults/Teens. Master Naturalist, Jody Heaston, will give a program about the Wabash River and talk about dug-out canoes and early Native Americans that traveled the river. After Jody's talk, we will be showing the documentary

"The Wabash: Life on the Bright White River" (if you'd like to stay).

Registration appreciated.

Book Discussions

Join us at the Who Picked This Book Anyway? Club (Thursday, Oct. 8 at 6:30 pm) or the Brown Bag Book Club (Monday, Oct. 12 at 1:30 pm) to discuss "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer" with other book-loving adults.

Online Book Discussion

Discuss the 2015 One Book One County title "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer" online at wellscolibrary.org (click on "News & Events" & "One Book One County").

Contest

Enter to win a copy of the book at both the Main Library and Ossian Branch by filling out our contest form and letting us know one of your favorite classic books. Forms must be filled out by Oct. 31.

Photo Booth

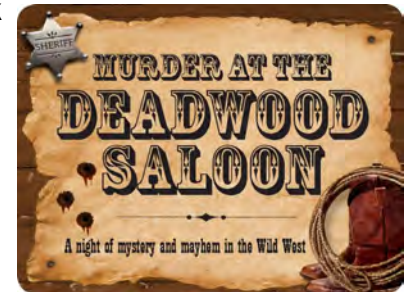

Check out our Tom Sawyer-themed photo booth at the Main Library throughout September and October. Make sure to bring your own camera!

Murder Mystery (Wild West Night)

Bluffton: Friday, October 9: 6:00-8:00 pm

Adults. Join us for our second murder mystery program coordinated with the Wells Community Theater. You'll get to step into a fictional mystery taking place in the Deadwood Saloon. Enjoy casino & card games and help solve the mystery being acted out before you. You can ask questions and interact one-on-one with the "characters" from the mystery or you can just sit back and enjoy the show as the actors walk around and mingle during the program.

There will be plenty of finger foods, mocktails, and other refreshments for you to enjoy. Prizes will be awarded in a variety of categories, including for most creative Wild West costume and for those that correctly guess the culprit of the crime. Registration required (by October 7).

Local Author Night

Bluffton: Tuesday, October 27: 6:00-8:00 pm

Adults/Teens/Kids. Join us for this fun, family-friendly event. Attendees will get to wander through booths set up throughout the Main Library to chat with authors and participate in lots of book-related activities (including children's games, book-themed crafts for kids and adults, and lots more). Authors will be divided into sections by genre so you can visit the children's area, teen section, or adult area for activities and books related to your age. You can purchase books from the authors if you like or just enjoy the fun. Refreshments will be provided. All activities will be free. No registration needed (just drop in during the event). There is still space for authors to register for a booth for free. If interested, contact Emily Marshall at emarshall@wellscolibrary.org or call the Main Library at 260-824-1612.

Tiger Tank

Four finalists have been announced in the Tiger Tank competition: Cakes by Tab, Pages Café, Pita Gardens, and RE:. To help the committee decide the winner, they are holding a community vote from now through Sept. 18th, so there is still time to let your voice be heard by voting on which business you think will be the best fit to open inside the Main Library's rental space. To participate in this community vote, just go to: www.wellscoc.com/tiger-tank. The winning business will be announced on Sept. 30th.

Tiger Tank is sponsored by the Wells County Chamber of Commerce & Economic Development and Bluffton NOW.

Summer Reading Recap

Thank you to everyone that participated in our 2015 Summer Reading Program and a special congratulations to the more than 1,100 children, teens, and adults that completed the program.

With your help, lots of wonderful books were read. Just how many?...

- Infants: about 73 of our youngest library patrons completed a total of 1,272 activities.
- Kids: with 1,374 children ages 2-grade 6 participating, the group read for 7,118 hours.
- Teens: more than 200 teen participants in grades 6-12 read 435,103 pages!
- Adults: between the 375 adults participating, there were 557,488 pages read.

Wow! That's a lot of books! As a reward, younger children that finished the program were entertained by the magic of Gary Kantor at the SRP party and all other age groups enjoyed parties of their own.

Make sure to check out all the Summer Reading Program sponsors and finishers in the newsletter insert.

Art Prints

The library allows you to check out up to two art prints at a time for free with a valid library card. You can view available prints in the gallery at the Main Library. Then just pick out your favorite pieces and take to the front desk to check out, just like you would a book or movie.

Program Cancellation Info

If the following school districts are closed due to inclement weather, all programs will be cancelled. If the school has a delay, then programming will proceed as normal.

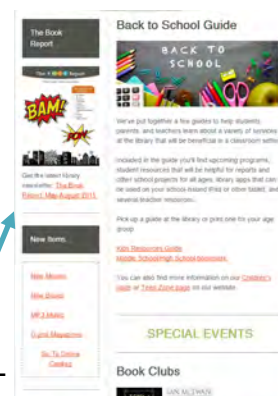

Main Library (Bluffton): Bluffton-Harrison School District
Ossian Branch: Northern Wells Community Schools

Resource SPOT Light

Family Tree Magazine

Family Tree Magazine is one of the Wells County Public Library's newest magazine subscriptions. The July/August 2015 issue has several interesting articles, including the article titled "Irish Sites are Smiling," which lists 12 popular genealogy websites. Ancestry.com is listed first. The Wells County Public Library subscribes to Ancestry Library, which patrons can access for free in the library. Since Ancestry sells personal subscriptions, remote access is not available. There are two computers in the Indiana Room dedicated to genealogy research.

Another article discusses the variety of information available on draft records from the Civil War and both World Wars. Besides age and marital status, place of birth, and occupation can be found plus other information.

An article that might surprise you since this is a genealogy magazine pertains to travel. "Living in the Past" lists the "10 top living history destinations for 2015." These 10 sites span the continental United States with Conner Prairie listed as #2.

Besides Family Tree Magazine being available for check out, you might consider our other genealogy magazine: Your Genealogy formerly titled Family Chronicle: the how-to-guide to tracing your ancestors is also available to check out for one week at a time.

Genealogy Workshops

Bluffton: First Thursday of the month at 6-7 pm (Sep.-Nov.) Adults. This 3-part series will cover tips and tricks on researching your ancestors and using local genealogy resources. Registration appreciated.

Sep. 3 Westward Migration

Some might think this refers to states west of the Mississippi, but for genealogy researchers living in Indiana it could have a different meaning. Part of the early westward migration meant moving from the eastern states to western Pennsylvania, then Ohio, then Indiana, and so on. This genealogy workshop will be on searching Ohio records. Not just online but the indexes available in the Indiana Room. If you are like the instructors, Meredythe and Vi, who have ancestors in Ohio, this should be of assistance to you in your research.

1,000 Books Before Kindergarten

Ages birth-kindergarten. 1,000 Books Before Kindergarten is a program that not only helps prepare children for school, but instills the value of reading and life-long learning.

If you'd like to enroll your child in the program, it's easy to get started. Just stop by the Main Library or Ossian Branch and receive your 1,000 Books Before Kindergarten journal and packet of information.

After each set of 100 books is read and recorded, take your journal to either building to receive a prize, the journal pages for your next 100 books, and literacy information.

When you and your child have read and recorded your 1,000th book, take your journal to either building for your final reward. A staff member will take a picture of you and your child for the News-Banner or Ossian Journal, and your child will receive a keepsake book.

The program is sponsored by the United Way of Wells County, the Wells County Foundation, and the Friends of the Library.
