

The Wells County Public Library is supported by your tax dollars. The library budget, however, cannot provide many materials that would improve its usefulness in the community.

Through the years, valuable additions to the library have been made possible because of donations from local citizens like you.

There are three ways that you can support the library with your donations.

Memorials & Gifts: A monetary gift given directly to the library. More information inside.

Donor Wall: The donor wall contains plaques on the east wall in honor of donors and memorials in these categories:

- Benefactors $5,000 or more
- Major Donors $1,000-$4,999
- Donors $500-$999
- Patrons $250-$499

Wells County Public Library Endowment Fund:

The investment of this fund with other Wells County funds provides additional money for library and other community needs. More information inside.

Talk to us today about giving a gift to the Wells County Public Library. We welcome your generous support.

Memorials, Gifts, & Endowment Fund

Gifts that continue to give.

Memorials & Gifts

A monetary gift may be given directly to the Wells County Public Library to purchase equipment or library materials that benefit library patrons. The contributor may request that the gift be placed into a Restricted Fund (used for a specified purpose) or may choose the Unrestricted Fund (allow the library to decide how the gift is best utilized). Examples of prior donations to Memorials & Gifts include book purchases, the map rack in the Indiana Room, a digital piano, art, and an automatic entrance door.

If you wish to give directly to the library, please complete the following:
