This privilege allows me to use the Public Internet computers and I agree to abide by the Internet Use Policy.”

Patron Policy for Young Children, Parents, Dependent Adults & Caregivers

Out of concern for the safety and security of children and dependent adults, the Wells County Public Library abides by the following policy.

- Children under 6 years of age must be accompanied by a parent or adult caregiver at all times while in the library. Parents may not leave their young children unattended while using other areas of the library or attending meetings.
- Children ages 6 and older may use the library unattended as long as they are engaged in activities associated with the use of a public library. Adult caregivers are encouraged not to leave children age 6 to 10 more than an hour unattended, as their attention spans are limited and they may become bored or disruptive after extended periods of time.

Those responsible for minor children or dependent adults should know

- A child or dependent adult who is disruptive or who is not reading, studying, using library equipment, or playing quietly may be asked to leave the library.

- If necessary, a library staff member will contact the police department to report cases of unattended children.
- In all situations, the parent or adult caregiver who has brought minor children or dependent adults onto the library premises or who has otherwise directed or allowed minor children or dependent adults onto the library premises shall be responsible for the care and safety of those individuals.
- The library is not responsible for the care and safety of minor children or dependent adults traveling to and from the library premises.
- The library staff does not take the place of the parent, act as caregiver, nor assume responsibility for the unattended children or dependent adults.
- Parents and caregivers are encouraged to talk to the children's librarian if they have questions or want additional information regarding these policies.

Video Surveillance

The Wells County Public Library strives to maintain a safe and secure environment for its staff and patrons. In pursuit of this objective, selected public areas of the library premises are under continuous camera surveillance and recording. This policy is in effect to deter public endangerment, vandalism, theft, and mischief in unsupervised areas and to identify those individuals involved in such activity for law enforcement purposes. Use of recordings will adhere to the applicable federal, state, and local law concerning the confidentiality of library records and the protection of individual privacy. Clearly worded camera surveillance signage is prominently displayed at library entrances.

Reasonable efforts shall be made to safeguard the privacy of patrons and employees. Cameras are not installed in areas where staff and patrons have a reasonable expectation of privacy. Confidentiality/privacy issues prohibit the general public from viewing security camera footage.

Recordings may be used by authorized individuals or law enforcement to identify the person or persons responsible for library policy violations, criminal activity on library property, actions considered disruptive to normal library operations or violation of the library's Standards of Patron Behavior.

Recordings are retained until the image capacity of the system is reached. The oldest stored images are automatically deleted. Recordings of incidents are retained and reviewed as long as considered necessary by the library director. All requests for footage by law enforcement will be referred to the library director.

Patron Privacy

Efforts are made to maintain a patron's sense of privacy and safety. If individuals call or enter the building looking for a patron, staff will not provide information to those individuals. Patrons are welcome to walk through the building. Staff will not use the phone system to page an individual at the request of another individual. Staff may take a name and phone number to pass along if they see the individual. WCPL staff are not privy to personal relationships or protective orders between individuals and want to protect the safety of the patrons in our building.
